A SLUMBER PARTY.

Thirty young ladies were entertained Wednesday night at a slumber party at the pretty new home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Burrus, Miss Mary and Addie Goodwin being the hostesses. The party was in honor of Misses Lenore Meisse, Lucile Burkholder and Irene Blackburn of Marion, Kansas, and Miss Laura McGee of Duncan, who are guests at the home of Judge Dickerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson chaperoned their guests to the Bijou theater in the earlier part of the evening, and served them a delicious three-course luncheon on their return home. A proposal contest was then entered into with enthusiasm and Miss Meisse and Miss Blackburn proved themselves to be typical "Leap Year Girls." Dancing was also indulged in and a large part of the night was spent in feasting and merriment, before sleep was contemplated.

A 6 o'clock breakfast, consisting of biscuits, jellies and chocolate was served the next morning.

Those present beside the guests of honor were, Misses Alma Pettyjohn, Lucile and Bernadette Dugan, Lillian Lorenson, Julia and Effie Wooten, Marie McMaisters, Helen Brown of El Reno, Helen and Helen Burke, Mildred and Josephine Dickerson, Alma Lancaster, Monte and Alta Grigaby, Goldie Baker, Nina Darnell, Mozetta Larson, Betty Estes, Fay White, Norma Bayless, Elsie Chandler and Nellie Grist.

ELKS' DANCE.

The Elks gave their first dance of the season last Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Abernathy of Mineral Wells, Texas, and Miss Violet Walker of Omaha, Neb. The social committee spared no effort in making the dance a success, and dancing was enjoyed until midnight. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock.

Among the dancers were, Violet Walker, Minnie Meade, Mabel Hull, Jo Hermes, Marguerite Little, Lillian Hendricks, Alma Sigmon, Kate Burton, Jennie Williams and Mary O'Neill, Mrs. Abernathy; Messrs. and Mesdames F. M. Frey, Ed Burton, J. S. Ashew and J. W. Owsley, and Messrs. Lee Jones, William Kennedy, Jack Cravens, W. H. Carrick, Hitchcock, Myron Humphreys, Lawrence Mills, Thomas Boyd, Charles Williams, A. S. Gilkey, C. O. Wheldon, Joe Baum, George Sutton, J. R. Potts and Dr. Feiler.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sparks entertained several couples at their home on Washington Heights Thursday evening in honor of Miss Rutledge of Dallas, Texas. Five hundred was played at four tables during the evening and a Dutch luncheon was served at midnight. The storm made it impossible for the party to disperse until an early morning hour. The guests were Misses Ella Williams, Emma Linn, Reeves, Alma Sigmon, Cora Hamilton and Rutledge, Mrs. Abernathy of Mineral Wells, and Messrs. Myron Humphrey, T. J. Boyd, Lee Jones, Arthur Browder, Dick Harbourn, Alger Melton and L. L. Bryan.

AT THE BANNAN HOME.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Fann Bannan Wednesday evening at her home, 1102 South Tenth street, by a number of her young friends. Miss Bannan leaves the first of next week to enter the Kingfisher college. Games and music made the evening pass swiftly and luncheon was served at a late hour. The guests were, Misses Mayne, Eunice and Beschuler, Myrtle Shelley, Hazel Bralnard, Ethel Gray and Mary Searce and Messrs. Robert Rankin, Jessie Burch, Ervin and Charles Elliott, Willie Westphal and Clarence Ferris.

DOUBLE QUARTET ENTERTAINED.

The members of the new double quartet and their wives spent a delightful evening Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hull. Music by the quartet members furnished entertainment for the evening and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hull. Those present were, Messrs. and Mesdames Heryer, Laubach, Stotts, Norvelle, McIntosh, Cunningham and McCoy and Mr. Foster Porter.

FOR VISITING GIRLS.

Miss Pearl Bishop made Wednesday afternoon a pleasant one for a number of her friends, whom she entertained in honor of Miss Clara Woodson of Richmond, Mo., Miss Bess Scoffern of Chicago and Mrs. Rankin of Paris, Texas. Each guest was asked to bring an empty bottle and soon after the arrival of all a quantity of crepe paper was distributed and the bottles were converted into dolls. The dolls were kept as souvenirs, and tiny blague dolls were given the guests of honor. An odor contest was then engaged in, and a pretty bottle of perfume was awarded Miss Nora Anderson for being skillful in this. Several delightful vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Rankin, Miss Elizabeth Butler and Mrs. Hatfield, and instrumental numbers by Misses Woodson, Scoffern and Sigmon were enjoyed. Delightful refreshments were served.

The invitation list included, Misses Grace and Elkhabeth Butler, Lee Irvin Bird, Alma Sigmon, Bessie Bulkley, Bessie Scoffern, Hazel Remington, Nora Anderson and Ella Williams; Mesdames Rankin, Ambrister, Hatfield and Owsley and the guests of honor.

EUCHRE CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Cora Hamilton was the charming hostess to the Euchre Club and several tables of guests last Saturday afternoon. Cards were played at eight tables and the club prize was awarded to Mrs. J. F. Mayer. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Ben Johnson on a cut with several ladies. A lovely luncheon was served in two courses, the hostess being assisted by her sister, Mrs. Will Melton, and her mother. The club is being entertained this afternoon by Mrs. S. W. Bird.

BRIDGE WHIST.

The devotees of the fascinating game of bridge whist enjoyed Wednesday afternoon of last week with Mrs. Will Melton, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Morgan Hamilton. The club game was played at three tables and dainty refreshments were served after several games had been enjoyed. Yesterday afternoon the Bridge Whist Club was entertained by Mrs. Reford Bond, and the afternoon was spent very pleasantly.

MISS SCOFFERN ENTERTAINS.

A number of the friends of Miss Genevieve Scoffern spent a very pleasant evening at her home last Monday, to meet Miss Bess Scoffern of Chicago and Miss Violet Walker of Omaha, Neb. An impromptu musical program furnished entertainment and lovely refreshments were served late. Guests of the occasion were Misses Minnie Meade and Violet Walker and Messrs. Honnold, Newlin, Cravens and Dr. Feiler and Shippey.

YOUNG LADIES' GUILD.

The Young Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Ralph Heryer Wednesday afternoon, to sew for their fall bazaar. A great deal of work was accomplished and the ladies feel encouraged over the prospects for their fair. Lemonade and cake were served by Mrs. Heryer. The guild will meet next Wednesday evening with Miss Jennie Williams.

CITY FEDERATION MEETING.

The City Federation of Women's Clubs will hold an important meeting at Convention Hall next Tuesday at 3:45 p. m.

The Presbyterian Social Circle met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. G. Lang. An interesting business session was followed by a social hour, during which the hostess served refreshments.
